Important Guidelines

1. The students can attend the schedule in Offline mode and conduct the experiment, submit the journal/ drawing sheets and appear for the mock oral physically on campus.
2. The students who cannot come physically, their mock orals will be held online in which the student has to put on the camera and show the files/ sheet hard copies and answer the questions asked.
3. Strictly this schedule will be followed for the term end submission and mock orals.
4. Students visiting campus shall follow the guidelines issued by the institute, government authorities and SPPU. They shall carry the I Card and shall take appropriate care of self and others. Also they shall report to the respective laboratories as per the schedule. Roaming in the campus is not permitted.
5. For the files or sheets to be verified during this schedule, it should be noted that the calculations/ write ups submitted online during the semester shall be filed in the journal. It is not necessary to rewrite the same on the journal pages. Drawing sheets shall be plotted on preferably on A1 size sheet as per the SPPU curriculum.
6. The students those who have registered for the respective programmes can submit the journals/ sheet during this schedule. Those who have not registered for the respective programme need not submit the same.
7. Any deviation in the above schedule is not permitted. In case of any difficulty, a written permission from HoD will be required.
